Charter Knowledge

- Is a charter school public and free?
 - Yes, all children can apply. It is a first come first admitted
- What does school choice mean?
 - Parents are given the option to decide which school they want to apply to and possibly attend.
 - Schools do not have to be in their neighborhood.
 - Parents can apply for charter schools that are out of their district if those schools have a state-wide attendance zone like PEACE does.
- What time should you apply for charter schools?
 - Most school's application window begins in Jan and ends in early Spring.
 - During this time, you are either admitted or placed in the lottery if more students apply than there are seats.
 - If you apply outside of this window, you will likely be placed on the school's waitlist.
